

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law by allowing banks and financial institutions and their subsidiaries to call me at any time. I receive ample mail from my banks detailing programs and new offerings. I also can subscribe to e-mail reports from them if I choose. I don't choose to be called by telephone. Thank you for your consideration of comments on this matter.